

MoH adds stroke patients to state-funded treatment plan

The Ministry of Health has agreed to add catheter-based interventions for acute stroke patients to the state-funded treatment plan. The two-year old decision had been delayed in the past due to high costs.

.