

Pharmaceutical affairs administration merged into Egyptian Drug Authority

The health ministry's Central Administration for Pharmaceutical Affairs was officially merged into the Egyptian Drug Authority. From now on, the newly formed agency will be responsible for the registration and pricing of medications, as well as the inspection of pharmacies and manufacturing facilities.