

MoH warns against counterfeit cancer drug

The Ministry of Health has warned that smuggled and unregistered packs of the cancer drug Zytiga have made their way into the Egyptian market. The ministry said there are obvious packaging differences between the counterfeit and the original medications, including the printed price and the MoH registration number of 2018/32879 printed on original packages.