

MoH reviews preparations for universal healthcare in five governorates

The universal healthcare system executive director met with health ministry officials from the five governorates where phase one of the system will be launched. They discussed the ongoing preparations, the current status of healthcare facilities, and the number of medical staff. The set-up of a center in each of the governorates was agreed, to raise citizens' and residents' awareness of the new system.