

Universal healthcare system: Surgeries carried out in Port Said hospitals for first time

About 30% of Port Said's residents have subscribed to the universal healthcare system since its pilot run in July. The new system brings new, premium medical services to the governorate for the first time, including corneal transplants as well as glaucoma and cochlear implant surgeries.