

Universal healthcare system: 1,595 services priced

As many as 1,595 medical services offered by the universal healthcare system have been priced. The scheme comprises three service levels. Level 1: The first line of defense against diseases. Level 2: This includes the phases of diagnosis and treatment. Level 3: This includes the rehabilitation phase for special conditions.