

Future Pharma to invest USD 3 mn in new production lines

Future Pharmaceutical Industries is considering adding three production lines worth USD 3 million in 2020 as it seeks to increase sales by 50% in two years. The company aims to start exporting to Uganda and the Ivory Coast next year. Last June, SPE Capital Partners acquired a 30% stake in Future Pharma for EGP 500 million.