

Developing universal healthcare system's IT infrastructure begins

The communications ministry has completed the IT infrastructure for the universal healthcare system in Port Said and it is set to be fully functional by 2020 in the other five governorates where the scheme was implemented.