

Pharmacies still selling drug recalled by MoH

The Ministry of Health has recalled batch No. n 11749 of GlaxoSmithKline's Fortum 500 MG Injection antibiotic for being substandard, however some pharmacies are still selling the drug, saying that they did not receive the ministry's warning.