

Proposed bill introduces tougher penalties for drug counterfeiting

The Parliamentary healthcare committee is discussing the bill that introduces tougher penalties for selling counterfeit, unregistered, or expired medications.