

MoH adopts 2D barcodes to stem drug counterfeiting

The Ministry of Health will adopt the two-dimensional (2D) barcode technology to facilitate the accurate tracking of medications. Pharmaceutical companies will start printing the 2D barcodes on drug packs by the end of the year.