

MoH cracks down on smuggled, counterfeit drug trade

The Ministry of Health has launched nationwide crackdown on the counterfeit drug trade. The campaign aims to rid the markets of counterfeit and expired drugs.