

MoH addresses drug shortage with pharmaceutical alternatives

The Ministry of Health has removed limitations on the registration of pharmaceutical alternatives in a bid to end drug shortage and combat monopolies. The Pharmacists' Syndicate has condemned the decision, saying it would lead to an upsurge in expired drugs.