

CVS suspends sales of Zantac

CVS Health Corp said it would discontinue sales of the popular Zantac heartburn treatment and its own generic ranitidine products after the U.S. Food and Drug Administration found traces of a known carcinogen in some of these products.