

MoH: Over 80,000 families register for universal healthcare system

As many as 80,379 families have registered for the universal healthcare system since its launch across five governorates last October, the health ministry has announced.