

GlaxoSmithKline launches production line for semisolid dosage forms at Giza plant

GlaxoSmithKline has inaugurated a Voltaren Emulgel production line at its plant in Giza. The factory's 11 production lines produce 90 million packs of 40 different medications. The British drugmaker has said that it will invest EGP 100 million in Egypt this year.