

Sanofi Egypt to increase its investments 50% in 2019

French pharma giant Sanofi is planning to increase its investments in Egypt by 50% this year. The company invested a total of EGP 300 million between 2016 and 2018, growing at 30% per year on average. It plans to launch up to 10 products within the next three years.