

AstraZeneca Egypt, Ministry of Health partner to train physicians ahead of comprehensive health insurance launch

AstraZeneca Egypt and the Ministry of Health have announced an expansion to their strategic cooperation and partnership under the 'Heart Health' initiative. This new level of cooperation comes in advance of the comprehensive national health insurance system launch and pertains to the sponsorship of 30 physicians attending Escala Foundation training in the UK.