MoH, AstraZeneca launch heart, lung healthcare initiatives

The Ministry of Health has launched heart and lung healthcare initiatives in cooperation with AstraZeneca Egypt. The company will provide equipment for 15 MoH clinics for the diagnosis and treatment of pulmonary diseases. It will also equip 50 clinics for chronic diseases, offer training for doctors, and create a patient database.