

Bayer South Africa hosts session on famine and food security

Bayer Crop Science Division South Africa, a global innovation enterprise with core competencies in the life science fields of agriculture and health care, hosted a session on famine to food Security as part of the Future of Farming Dialogue 2019.