

Parl't committee discusses drug authority bill

Under the 18-article bill, the new regulatory body will be affiliated with the Cabinet, and its board will include heads of the pharmacists' and medical syndicates, and two presidents of medicine and pharmacy schools, as well as representatives of the State Council, and of finance and industry ministries