

Pharmacists' Syndicate sends feedback on drug authority bill to Parl't

The Pharmacists' Syndicate has sent 18 notes as feedback on the proposed legislation to establish a drug authority. The syndicate's suggestions included appointing a pharmacist as the head of the authority, adding a representative for the syndicate to the board, and creating standard specifications for pharmaceutical products, cosmetics, herbal medications, and medical supplies.