

Final preparations for universal healthcare system debut

Preparations were underway for the launch of the universal healthcare system in Port Said early July. Medical teams joining the new scheme will be hired by mid-June and 35 family medicine units will be ready ahead of the system's launch.