

Health minister discusses universal healthcare plan in Parl't

The health minister will discuss the latest developments concerning the universal healthcare system with members of the Parliamentary Health Committee. The committee will also receive updates on the outcomes of the ongoing HCV screening campaign.