

MoH: Number of vaccinated children went up 95% in 2018

The number of children who received vaccines for preventable diseases increased by 95% in 2018. As many as 1.9 million neonates were vaccinated in the first 10 months of 2018.