

Health minister: Modern oncology drug manufacturing technology to be brought to Egypt

The government will cooperate with international companies to bring the latest oncology medication manufacturing technology to Egypt, according to Health Minister Hala Zayed. The MoH will focus on manufacturing biotech and biosimilar cancer drugs. The Arab Company for Drug Industry and Medical Appliances (ACDIMA) plans to produce about 70 oncology medications by the end of 2019.