

Speed Medical signs deal with MoH to join HCV screening campaign

The Speed Medical Group has signed a deal with the Ministry of Health to offer check-ups as part of the HCV and non-communicable disease screening campaign. According to the deal, the company will offer screening services and host MoH mobile units.