

Public enterprise sector minister, Sanofi officials discuss potential cooperation

Public Enterprise Sector Minister Hisham Tawfik has discussed the possibilities of cooperation with Sanofi officials as the government seeks to shore up its loss-making pharmaceutical companies. The minister revealed that HoldiPharma will establish a pharmaceutical plant in Chad to export drugs to its neighboring countries.