Hematology Unit Inaugurated at Al Manial Specialized Hospital

Al Manial Specialized Hospital inaugurated a new hematology unit supporting adult patients, in collaboration with Novartis and Egypt's top specialists. An important milestone, the inauguration is yet another step to improve healthcare services in Egypt and alleviate the physical, financial, and psychological burden on patients.

Dr. Ahmed Sobhy, General Manager of Cairo University Hospitals said, "With the patronage of Dr. Fathy Khodair, Dean of Cairo University's Faculty of Medicine, the support and care offered by Cairo University Hospitals now encompasses a hematology unit for adults within Al Manial Specialized Hospital providing patients with a full spectrum of services including the transfusion of blood derivatives, chemotherapy, and immunotherapy to treat anemia, bleeding, thrombosis, and leukemia patients."
