

Pharma industry not disrupted by halt of raw material imports from China

The Cabinet has denied that the pharmaceutical industry was adversely affected by suspending raw material imports from China. It said that the health ministry has a sufficient strategic stock of different medications and that the coronavirus outbreak has no impact on Egypt's pharma industry.