9 Years of Leadership

Abu Dhabi Islamic Bank – Egypt (ADIB-Egypt) Named "Best Islamic Financial Institution in Egypt 2026" by Global Finance Magazine for the 9th Consecutive Year

CEO and Managing Director: Sustaining Leadership Demands an Unwavering Commitment to Excellence, Continuous Improvement, and Innovation

Abu Dhabi Islamic Bank – Egypt (ADIB-Egypt) has been named "Best Islamic Financial Institution in Egypt for 2026" by Global Finance magazine for the ninth consecutive year, reaffirming its leadership in Egypt's Islamic banking sector and underscoring its longstanding commitment to excellence.

This prestigious recognition reflects the bank's unwavering commitment to delivering exceptional performance year after year, while enhancing its capabilities and services. It also reinforces the belief that true leadership is not merely about attaining a leading position, but about consistently sustaining and building on it over time.

Mr. Mohamed Aly, CEO and Managing Director of Abu Dhabi Islamic Bank – Egypt (ADIB-Egypt), said:» Being named the Best Islamic Financial Institution in Egypt for 2026 by Global Finance magazine for the ninth consecutive year is a proud milestone that reflects our sustained record of excellence and reinforces our position as a leader in Islamic banking. Maintaining this leadership calls for a continued focus on enhancing our performance, adapting to the evolving banking landscape, and strengthening our capabilities to deliver lasting value to our customers. This recognition is also a testament to the dedication of our team and the strength of our forward-looking strategy, underpinned by a commitment to continuous improvement and ongoing investment in technology and innovation.»

Aly emphasized that the bank's strategy is focused on elevating customer experience and enhancing operational efficiency by delivering advanced Sharia-compliant banking solutions that keep pace with customers' evolving needs.

ADIB-Egypt received Global Finance's Best Islamic Financial Institution in Egypt 2026 award during a ceremony held on October 17, 2026, alongside the Annual Meetings of the International Monetary Fund (IMF) and the World Bank in Bangkok, Thailand.

This latest recognition adds to ADIB-Egypt's growing portfolio of prestigious international awards, reflecting its excellence across a broad range of banking activities. The bank was named "Best Islamic Bank in Egypt 2026" by Euromoney for the second consecutive year and also secured the "Best Islamic Bank in Egypt" title from the Union of Arab Banks for the second consecutive year.

In corporate and investment banking, ADIB-Egypt was recognized by Islamic Finance News (IFN) as "Best Corporate Bank in Egypt 2026" and "Best Investment Bank in Egypt 2026" awards. The bank also received the "IFN Egypt Deal of the Year 2025" and "IFN Sovereign & Multilateral Deal of the Year 2025" awards, both presented in 2026.

ADIB-Egypt's progress in digital transformation also earned international recognition, with MEED, one of the region's leading economic intelligence platforms, naming ADIB-Egypt "Best Digital Bank in Egypt for 2026". This distinction underscores the bank's success in strengthening its digital capabilities, improving operational efficiency, and delivering a seamless, secure banking experience that makes it easier for customers to access financial solutions suited to their evolving needs.

These international accolades underscore ADIB-Egypt's achievements across multiple areas of banking and reflect the strength of its long-term strategy. By maintaining a strong focus on performance excellence, continuous improvement, and strategic investment in technology and innovation, the bank continues to reinforce its leadership and competitive position in Egypt's banking sector.
