

MoH approves new drug for type 2 diabetes

The health ministry approved a new type 2 diabetes drug that targets the kidneys, lowering blood glucose by sending excess sugar into the urine, unlike primary diabetes medications that traditionally increase insulin release from the pancreas.