

PRESS CLIPPING SHEET

PUBLICATION:	Business Today
DATE:	November-2015
COUNTRY:	Egypt
CIRCULATION:	9,500
TITLE :	Honoring artists and journalists on the sidelines of ADAM International Conference after their choice as ambassadors for "the right of cancer patients in childbearing" initiative
PAGE:	62
ARTICLE TYPE:	NGO News
REPORTER:	Staff Report

Honoring Artists and Journalists on the Sidelines of ADAM International Conference after Their Choice as Ambassadors for "the right of cancer patients in childbearing" initiative

The Egyptian association for care of reproductive health had set up a big celebration for honoring the artists Abeer Sabry, Dalia Elbhery, May Sleem, Mais Hemdan, Dana Hemdan and Safaa Galal, in addition to the informatives Lamiaa Fahmy, Heba Elabasery and Merhan Saleh as their choice as ambassadors for "the right of cancer patients for childbearing" initiative.

After presenting the Certificates of Honor in person, Dr Medhat Amer the head of the Egyptian Association and the head of the international conference explained his happiness with the attendance of the celebrities as this initiative is important for giving new hope and value for cancer patients.

The informative Lamiaa Fahmy expressed her happiness for choosing her as an ambassador for this initiative which is holding great emotional feeling that gives the cancer patients hope and value.

The actress Abeer Sabry expressed her happiness for this choice as the art has a positive role inside the society and actors have an important role to improve the society.

ADAM second international conference was attended by 500 doctors and 30 international experts. The conference discussed the way to treat the fertility for cancer patients and to show the Egyptian doctors how to treat those cases.