

New drug for colon patients

A new herbal medicine helps regulate the process of digestion and absorption. The drug contains sage, chamomile, gum Arabic, and date seed extract that is made up of iron, calcium, potassium, minerals, zinc, and vitamin B12.