

Rameda Pharma plans expansion to 10 new countries

Rameda Pharma is planning to expand sales to 10 new Gulf and African markets in the medium term as part of its growth plan. New markets on Rameda's radar include Uganda, Tanzania, Ivory Coast, and Palestine, while the company targets the expansion of its business in existing markets including Saudi Arabia, the UAE, and Nigeria. The company aims to launch 78 dietary supplements as part of its plan to roll out 354 new products. It revealed that 50% of its new medications will be for chronic diseases.