

Bayer Group to take comprehensive range of portfolio, efficiency and structural measures

The Bayer Group aims to strengthen its core life science businesses through a series of portfolio, efficiency and structural measures designed to enhance productivity and innovation, while significantly improving competitiveness.