

Prices of 66 drugs hiked in 6 months (Al Ahaaly, 23 January)

Since taking office six months ago, Health Minister Hala Zayed raised the prices of more than 66 drugs, according to the Head of the Egyptian Center for the Right to Medicine Mahmoud Fouad. Fouad added that the minister is taking such decisions covertly without any official announcements, noting that the Ministry of Health will most likely float drug prices.